Berlin Reports That for One Stretch of Twenty-Five Hours There Was Continuous Fire by the Russian Guns, but Enemy Failed.

BRITAIN READY TO DRAFT THE UNMARRIED 'SLACKERS'

BERLIN, Dec. 29 (via London).-The offensive movement undertaken by the French in the Vosges, at Hirzstein, is said by the German War Office to have broken down last night.

"The French twice attacked positions on Hartmannswellerkopf, which our troops had recaptured," said the official report. "They penetrated certain points in our trenches. After the first attack the enemy was driven off everywhere immediately. Fighting for possession of certain trench sections continues."

The Czernowitz (Bukowina) correspondent of the Tageblatt says the Russians have made eight attacks against the Austrians on the Bessarabian border since Christmas night. Despite a tremendous expenditure of ammunition and men the attacking forces have not yet succeeded in breaking through the lines.
